

HEDRICK HOUSE CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE ONE: MEMBERSHIP

1. 1. A “member” is anyone who has a valid contract with Hedrick House, Inc. A member is in good standing with the house if they are less than 30 days behind in their rent.
1. 2. No one may live in Hedrick House without signing a valid contract first, except temporary guests of members who abide by the Guest Policy as outlined in this document.
1. 3. Prospective members must be approved by current members by a unanimous house vote. This is to allow for any prospective denials to be approved in case of bad history, threats, stalking, etc between current house members and the prospective member.

ARTICLE TWO: RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Each member shall have one vote at Hedrick House meeting. There shall be no voting by proxy unless the house has given permission to a member for a certain situation.

1. 1. Members are expected to:
 1. a. Understand and promote the aims and purposes of the cooperative.
 2. b. Take an active part in the affairs of the house.
 3. c. Exercise the power to vote.
 4. d. Perform all jobs and duties as required by the house.
 5. e. Be aware of the contents of the House by-laws.
1. 2. Members are required to attend all house meetings. Every unexcused absence from a house meeting shall incur a $10 fine charged to the member's account. Grounds for excuse will be determined by the Finance Officer.
1. 3. The membership has the right and responsibility to:
 1. a. Elect house officers.
 2. b. Determine the use of the net surplus and savings.
 3. c. Remove officers when they neglect to perform their duties properly.
 4. d. Make changes in the affairs of the house.

ARTICLE THREE: DEPARTURES

1. 1. New members’ obligations consist of a $200 house loan, $60 house dues, and appropriate SHC dues, payable upon signing a contract with the house at the SHC.
1. 2. Members who leave Hedrick House shall be refunded the entire house loan, minus any outstanding debts owed to the co-op by the member.
1. 3. A member desiring to leave Hedrick House at any time during the terms of the member’s contract shall give prior notice of their intent to leave to the membership officer and must sign a release of contract. The leaving member is responsible for filling the vacancy that has been created. All debts incurred by the house in finding a replacement for the leaving member shall be charged to the member's account. The leaving member will be held liable for the room charged from the time the vacancy is created until a replacement is found, or until the end of the leaving member's contract, whichever comes first.

1. 4. If two or more residents leave the house during or at the end of the same term and suitable replacements are not found by leaving residents individually, then all debts incurred by the house in replacements, including room charges, shall be divided between the two or more leaving members.

ARTICLE FOUR: MEMBER AGREEMENTS

All members must sign a contract with the SHC before establishing residency within the house.

Forty-five days prior to the end of the current term shall be the deadline for current members to sign a contract for the following fall term. If by this date a contract has not been signed, a place in the house cannot be guaranteed and the member loses all seniority within the house.

Forty-five days prior to the end of the current term shall be the deadline for current members to sign a contract for the following summer term. If by this date a contract has not been signed, a place in the House cannot be guaranteed and the member loses all seniority within the house. If a summer term contract is broken by a current member they shall forfeit $15 from their loan in addition to being liable for all charges till the end of the contract.

ARTICLE FIVE: SENIORITY

Seniority in the house is determined by the number of terms a member has lived there, in that the higher the number of terms a member has there, the higher that member's seniority. In the case of new members, and in the case that two or more people have lived in the house the same amount of terms, seniority is then determined by the date a member signed a contract.

The seniority of a member who has left the house for two or more consecutive terms and then decides to return is established by placing the member at the bottom of that group which, at the time they move back, had been living in the house the same number of terms which the returning member had when they left.

ARTICLE SIX: ROOMS

Assignment of rooms for the fall and spring term shall be made on the basis of seniority at the end of every term prior to the time period in question. A member correctly assigned to a room shall have right of occupancy to that room until the end of the contract year.

Room sign-up for the summer term, which is subject to seniority, shall be arranged by the membership officer.

Any two members of Hedrick House may trade their room assignments, with notice given to the membership officer.

ARTICLE SEVEN: OFFICERS

Elections shall be held at the first house meeting of each term. Only members in good standing may be elected to an officer position. Officers are elected by a majority vote and may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote by members. All Officers except Finance are elected for one term. The term of Finance Officer lasts from the beginning of the fall term to the end of the spring term with the summer term being a single elected term.

Each member shall be assessed a proportional amount of house expenses each semester. The treasurer is to propose a revenue and expense budget for each term at the first house meeting of the term. Once a budget has been passed by membership, that budget shall be the guidelines for the spending policy. An existing budget may be amended by a majority vote at a house meeting. If there is a surplus at the end of the term, then each member's account is to be credited a proportional amount of that surplus. If there is a budget deficit at the end of the term, then each member's account will be charged a proportional amount of deficit. The house treasurer shall post a list of member account balances. The schedule of house charges shall coincide with SHC's assessment billing. The treasurer shall set the due date for rent three days prior to the due date for the assessment bill. The rent list will be posted by the treasurer seven days prior to the due date for rent. If a member owes the house more than 30 days rent, a promissory note shall be made with the member. The house treasurer is to follow the guidelines as stipulated in Title 6 of the MSU- SHC Code of Operations. If a member breaks any provision within the promissory note, he/she shall be assessed a $10 fine. If a member owes more than 45 days of rent, then the member's account is to be discussed at the next house meeting and a vote of confidence concerning the member is to be made.

FINE POLICY A. A member may have a fine charged to his/her account for the following reasons:
Failure of a member to do or complete any one of his/her jobs. Unexcused absence from ICC or SHC meeting, if required within a member's house job description. Non-compliance with the house or SHC finance policy. Unexcused absence from house meetings.

B. It is suggested that the amount a member is charged for a fine is $5 which is amendable by the house. C. A written copy of the fine is to be given to the member and the treasurer. D. If a member is fined for failure to do or complete a house job, then the fine may be credited to any member who completes the job. E. Every member has the right to challenge any fine at the first house meeting following the issue of a fine. F. If a departing member fails to return all house keys distributed to him/her, he/she will be fined $20.

ARTICLE ELEVEN: EXPULSION

A. A member may be expelled from the house for any of the following reasons: Continual non-performance or poor performance of member's jobs. Nonpayment of money owed to Hedrick House. Malicious destruction of another member's property Or Hedrick house Property. Violation of housemate's rights. Use of force or threats of force, including sexual harassment, against house members or guests. Discrimination against any person because of race, gender, handicap, sexual preference, or national origin.

B. If the house wishes to expel a member, and then the accused member shall be personally notified in writing of the charges and shall be given a chance to respond at a house meeting before an expulsion vote is cast. C. A majority vote of all house members holding contracts is necessary to expel a member. This vote must be signed and petitioned listing all charges against a member. D. Upon passage of the motion to expel a member, the expelled member shall be given 24 hours to indicate when he/she will be leaving. If the person refuses to leave, the membership officer shall ask the SHC staff to initiate formal eviction proceedings in court. During the eviction proceedings, the rights of the expelled member shall be protected by house members. Expelled members may not be held responsible for the vacancy caused by expulsion. E. Non-renewal of contracts- A new member may be refused renewal of their house contract for any non-discriminatory reason, if a simple majority of the house membership agrees to such action.

ARTICLE TWELVE: HOUSE MEETINGS

A. House Meetings are called About every two weeks unless deemed necessary to be more frequent by the house. B. The first house meeting of the term should be held as soon as possible after all members have established residency, but no later than the first day of MSU classes. C. A quorum of the members of the house shall consist of two-thirds of the membership. A simple majority of members present at a meeting is required to pass motions. D. Attendance at house meetings is mandatory for all members. A $10 fine is charged to those with an unexcused absence.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN: GUEST POLICY

Guests are welcome at Hedrick, unless a majority of the members in the house feels uncomfortable by the presence of the guest. In this case a petition must be signed by the majority of the members in the house. If this happens, a house meeting must be called and, upon a majority vote, a member's guest privileges may be restricted. A guest may stay for a maximum of 5 days, after which a vote by the house is required to extend the guest's stay. Guests (not including touring guests) can not eat the house meal. A guest may be asked to contribute money and/or work hours.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN: PET POLICY

All plans for pets must be brought up at a house meeting before it is brought in the house. Any member bringing a pet into the house must submit themselves to a two week (Subject to extension) trial period in which other members of the house deem whether or not the pet will be a fair, clean, and unobtrusive addition to Hedrick house. There must be an alternate plan/place to stay for any pet brought into the house just in case it does not get approved after the trial period. Any and all pet allergies must be taken into account when bringing new pets into the house. Any pets brought into the house must be respected and cared for by their owners as well as housemates. Any case of animal mistreatment is a police matter and shall be treated as such. A three fourths majority vote of the house may allow the pet's entrance. Pet owners are responsible for any and all impact their animal has on the house's day to day operations and environment. Including but not limited to sights, smells, animal droppings, use of house resources, and space needed to house the pet. Ex. Plant destruction No dogs as according the SCH policy In order to vote a pet out of the house, the members of the house must have a majority vote pro kicking the pet out in order to remove the animal.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN: AMENDMENTS

The House Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority of all members of Hedrick House in good standing. Notice of changes must be submitted to the SHC office with the signatures of the approving house members for computer revision.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN: CHECK OUT POLICY

Each departing member shall leave all house keys and forwarding address with the house membership officer. Each departing member shall be responsible for leaving his or her room clean and free of unnecessary debris for the next member.

ARTICLE SEVENTEEN: Friendship Clause

If any prospective member is friends with a current housemate who will be renewing their contract for the same year as the prospective member, the house holds the right to deny this potential member on the basis of the friendship clause. Additionally, if two or more prospective members are friends the house holds the right to approve membership to the the touree who contacted the membership officer first, and then deny the other potential members. Friendship is to be determined by the house and these situations will be voted on a case by case basis. This is to preserve the community style culture cultivated in Hedrick, and to prevent cliquing or "house take-overs".

ARTICLE EIGHTEEN: COVID 19 RESPONSE

Guest Policy NO non-essential guests or visitors inside Hedrick house; Exceptions include SHC

Maintenance Coordinator, SHC maintenance contractors, other SHC staff members and officers carrying out SHC business. Houses must be notified in advance when the aforementioned staff are visiting a house. Other Exceptions include close friends/significant others who submit to a temperature check and have been known to be in good health to the member who vouches for them to enter the house, ex. Has been self quarantining, hasn't been at high risk gatherings of over 10 people, Wears a mask in public, etc. Temperatures over 100.4 will be asked to leave when checked. If a member violates the guest policy: ■ Violation #1 - House members discuss the guest policy with the member who violated it, make sure the policy is understood. ■ Violation #2 - A conflict resolution team made up of one fellow housemate and one member of the SHC COVID Response Team will meet with the member who violated the guest policy. They will discuss the importance of the guest policy and make the violating member aware of the consequences of violating the policy a third time. ■ Violation #3 - after a third violation the violating member could be found in breach of their contract, possibly causing their contract with the SHC to be terminated.

Communication and Notification Communications Point Person- The SHC COVID Response Team is asking all houses to appoint a one person for COVID related communications. This is a safe person that everyone in the house can go to for reporting and guidance. Once appointed the communication point person will be added to a SHC wide COVID communication network made up of one member from each house. The purpose of this network is to share resources among houses and to provide a space for houses to share updates on active COVID cases within the SHC. The COVID Communications point person is also responsible for completing the COVID 19 Reporting Form so that the COVID Response Team can actively monitor for any areas of concern. The COVID Communication Point Person will be responsible for: Sharing necessary safety updates with their house, Updating the COVID Response Team on the health status of their house, and alerting the Response Team if there is an active case in the house. Sharing resources with house members, such as the location of COVID testing sites. If there is an active case in the house, putting quarantine measures into place.

House sanitation and Safety practices Creation of the "Covid Crusher" Job as a catch all for surfaces in the house needing sanitization regularly. Sanitation & Cleaning ● Continue normal routine cleaning with soap and water in all common areas; In addition, high-touch surfaces in common areas must be sanitized daily.
