New Community Constitution

Preamble We the people of New Community, in order to form a more harmonious cooperative; establish education, training, and information; ensure equity and solidarity; promote honesty and openness; and secure autonomy and independence for ourselves and those that come after us, do ordain and establish this Constitution for New Community Cooperative. We hold that New Community is composed both of the house in which the members reside and the members themselves; the identity of the property in which the members reside shall thus be New Community, governed thereby with this constitution.

Article I - Governance

- 1. The operations and activities of New Community shall be governed by rules and regulations proposed and adopted at house meetings.
 - 1. House meetings are convened by the elected president with at least a three-day notice to the members unless and emergency meeting is required.
 - 2. Unless specifically stated elsewhere in this constitution, a quorum for a house meeting shall be half plus one of the contract-holding members in residence. Meetings cannot be held without quorum unless the preceding regularly-schedules meeting failed to achieve a quorum. Once quorum is achieved, the meeting may continue to its finish even if a quorum is no longer present.
 - 3. Decisions at a house meeting are made by a simple majority vote of those members in attendance, unless otherwise described by this constitution.
 - 4. Emergency house meetings may be called by any member by notifying the president. Notice of at least 24 hours is required and only one topic or series of closely related topics may be discusses.
 - 5. Meetings will be conducted informally and cooperatively, however, the president is empowered to impose forms of parliamentary procedure as the situation requires.
 - 6. Attendance at house meetings is mandatory.
 - 7. A bi-weekly meeting time will be established and followed at the beginning of every semester.
- 2. Decisions of a regulatory nature are to be codified and recorded separately from the minutes as detailed under the duties of the Education Officer.
- 3. Referenda may be called.
 - 1. A referendum consists of a statement of the problem and a proposed solution; this is signed, seconded, and posted in a prominent place in the house.
 - 2. There will be space for every member to sign on the referendum; there will be room also for comments. The comments should be made on a separate sheet.
 - 3. Members vote with their signature, in two columns for "aye" or "nay"
 - 4. Problems dealt with in a referendum and their solutions need a vote of 2/3 of the total membership to pass.
 - 5. The referendum is posted for two weeks; at the end of that time the issue is decided by the number of signatures.

- 6. The solution, if it has been carried, will be implemented by the president.
- 7. Any member may demand that the problem encompassed in the referendum may be removed and dealt with at a house meeting.

Article II - Powers of Membership

- The membership is empowered to establish the schedule of labor and jobs at the first house meeting of each semester, as well as elect by popular vote officers as outlined in this constitution.
