

New Community Constitution

Preamble

We the people of New Community, in order to form a more harmonious cooperative; establish education, training, and information; ensure equity and solidarity; promote honesty and openness; and secure autonomy and independence for ourselves and those that come after us, do ordain and establish this Constitution for New Community Cooperative. We hold that New Community is composed both of the house in which the members reside and the members themselves; the identity of the property in which the members reside shall thus be New Community, governed thereby with this constitution.

Scope of the Constitution

This constitution supersedes all previous constitutions and all policies at variance with it other than those of the SHC. Except where limited by this constitution and the SHC, members are empowered to make decisions and enact policies independently and with concern for their fellow residents and the well-being of the house.

Article I - House Meetings

1. 1.1 The operations and activities of New Community shall be governed by rules and regulations proposed and adopted at house meetings.
 1. a. Meetings will be conducted informally and cooperatively.
 2. b. A bi-weekly meeting time will be established and followed at the beginning of every semester.
 3. c. Attendance at house meetings is mandatory. Excused absences must be discussed with the moderator prior to the meeting, or a fine will be enacted for the absent member.
 4. d. House meetings are convened by the moderator with at least a three-day notice to the members by the moderator unless an emergency meeting is required. Emergency meetings require 48-hour notice. Notices should be posted to all forms of social media/communication the house uses.
 5. e. A quorum for a house meeting shall be half plus one of the contract-holding members in residence. Meetings cannot be held without quorum unless the preceding regularly-scheduled meeting failed to achieve a quorum. Once quorum is achieved, the meeting may continue to its finish even if a quorum is no longer present. If a meeting is held without quorum, no voting may occur, if a vote happens the results are null. A meeting that does not meet quorum is solely for the purpose of discussion and potential planning, not direct action.
 6. f. Decisions at a house meeting are made by a simple majority vote of those members in attendance.
 7. g. The membership may recall elected officers by a majority vote at any house meeting.

1. 1.2 Decisions of a regulatory nature are to be codified and recorded separately from the moderator's minutes as detailed under the duties of the Education Officer.

Article II - Powers of Membership

1. 2.1 The membership is empowered to establish the schedule of labor and jobs at the first house meeting of each semester, as well as elect by popular vote officers as outlined in this constitution.
2. 2.2 Members have the power to determine a budget, under the direction of the house treasurer and staying within SHC policies, and alter this budget at times in the future.

Article III - Responsibilities of Membership

1. 3.1 All members are to participate in work duties as decided on by house, including both weekly work duties and Big Jobs projects once per semester.
2. 3.2 All members are not to be found in negligence or tardiness of work duties, or will be subject to fines. This fine shall be set at $5 for the first offense, $10 for the second offense, $15 for the third offense, and $15 for all subsequent offenses. All fines are assessed by the Jobs Manager and reported to both the fined member and the Finance Officer.
3. 3.3 A member may appeal a fine at the next regularly-scheduled house meeting, and may have the fine removed with a majority vote of the house.
4. 3.4 Fines and other charges from the house shall be due with the regular monthly charges on the 1st of each month.
5. 3.5 Absence from any house meeting results in an automatic fine, unless the moderator is informed in advance of the absence and provided with a valid excuse.
6. 3.6 All members agree to abide by the decisions of the house passed in accordance with this constitution, as well as the policies of the SHC.
7. 3.7 At the beginning of each semester quiet hours are to be defined and established by the active members of the house.

Article IV - Seniority

1. 4.1 Seniority is determined first by months lived at New Community and then secondly by months residing in the Spartan Housing Cooperative.
2. 4.2 In case of a tie among the number of semesters, the date that contracts were signed will determine the order of seniority.

Article V - House Officers
